Point

1. Don't take what you have for granted, thank God for what He has given you

Let them thank the Lord for his steadfast love, for his wondrous works to the children of man! For he satisfies the longing soul, and the hungry soul he fills with good things." (Psalm 107:8–9, ESV)

Point

2. Don't give up your God called position in troubling times

Each one should remain in the condition in which he was called." (1 Corinthians 7:20, ESV)

So, brothers, in whatever condition each was called, there let him remain with God." (1 Corinthians 7:24, ESV)

Point

3. Don't give up a long term blessing for short term relief

For this light momentary affliction is preparing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison, as we look not to the things that are seen but to the things that are unseen. For the things that are seen are transient, but the things that are unseen are eternal." (2 Corinthians 4:17–18, ESV)

Wrap it up (Genesis 25:29–34, ESV)

Once when Jacob was cooking stew, Esau came in from the field, and he was exhausted. And Esau said to Jacob, "Let me eat some of that red stew, for I am exhausted!" (Therefore his name was called Edom.) Jacob said, "Sell me your birthright now." Esau said, "I am about to die; of what use is a birthright to me?" Jacob said, "Swear to me now." So he swore to him and sold his birthright to Jacob. Then Jacob gave Esau bread and lentil stew, and he ate and drank and rose and went his way. Thus Esau despised his birthright." (Genesis 25:29–34, ESV)

REFLECTION

Be careful to not let a temporary solution forfeit you of your blessings and place of destiny assigned by God Yahweh.
